

Nestled in the heart of Portland, Annesley House has a welcoming ambience allowing you to slow down and get back in touch with the small pleasures in life.

Step out the front door and be welcomed by ocean views and a short 2-minute stroll to shops, cafes and beaches.

Acknowledging its historic past, Annesley is beautifully decorated throughout, complete with modern facilities and charming gardens to unwind in.

Built in 1878, our Georgian-style home was originally a doctor's surgery and private residence. It has been meticulously restored to its former grandeur, interplaying its décor between contemporary and traditional.

About the Apartments

THE BAYTREE SUITE Located on the first floor.

This sun-lit apartment was originally built as a sitting room and was used exclusively by Dr Brewer, the first owner of Annesley House and his family. Now transformed into an elegant apartment with its very own reading nook or day room overlooking the beautiful gardens of Annesley house.

After a day enjoying one of Portland's nature walks or magnificent beaches, a soak in the claw foot bath is just what the doctor ordered!

CAPTAIN'S QUARTERS Located on the first floor.

In the late 1800s Portland was a busy port & business centre. A man of Dr Brewer's station would have been called upon to 'accommodate' visiting Captains whilst their ship was in Port.

The 'Captain's Quarters' manages to combine modern functionality and a beautiful sea view, resulting in a comfortable and spacious self-contained apartment. Recently refreshed, the Captain's Apartment is perfect for business travellers.

ROSALIE'S RETREAT Located on first floor

Rosalie's Retreat' is a one-bedroom apartment. Located on the first floor, it has a sea view from one side and a view of historic St Stephen's church from the other. This apartment has been restored interplaying its décor between contemporary and traditional.

Whether you enjoy soaking in the original claw foot bath or lounging on the sofa with a coffee or a glass of wine, this apartment provides the perfect stay while in Portland.

THE GRANDE Located on ground floor

Fully self-contained one-bedroom, recently renovated with a large, a gas log fire and reverse cycle heating/cooling, polished floors and joins the sunroom sitting area which lots of natural light and overlooks the beautiful gardens.
